Bem-vindo,

TIKARA!

No mês de janeiro, Mauricio de Sousa esteve em Brasília para entregar ao presidente Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva um quadro com a imagem do personagem que criou – em conjunto com sua esposa Alice Takeda – para ser o mascote do Centenário da Imigração Japonesa no Brasil, que se comemora em 2008.

O simpático garotinho, que mescla a tradição milenar do Japão ao jeito brasileiro de ser, foi batizado como Tikara, que significa força, vigor e energia. Ou seja, representa bem a garra que os imigrantes japoneses demonstraram há um século, quando chegaram ao nosso país.

E o mais legal é que o Tikara passará a ser personagem das revistas da Turma da Mônica em breve, para mostrar muito da cultura do Japão. Então, seja bem-vindo, Tikara!
